

Information for Table Hostesses

Thank you for committing to decorate a table for “Come to the Table: A PCBC Women’s Dinner.” The event is Tuesday, Nov. 10, in the Great Hall. Doors will open at 5:45 p.m. for table viewing. Women will find their seats at 6:45 p.m., and dinner and the program will begin at 7 p.m.

The following details may be helpful as you plan your table this year.

THEME & DECOR

- In past years, we had an overall theme. This year, we would like the dinner title, “Come to the Table,” to be each woman’s invitation to find a seat at a table of any theme.
- “Tell Your Story”: Come up with a title for your tablescape and use favorite colors, a favorite verse, a collection of items or favorite flowers.
- Remember, you can keep it simple. Some ideas might include seasonal decor, holiday decor, a ministry or nonprofit you love and so much more. Don’t overthink it.
- Favors are not required, but you are welcome to provide one for each person at your table.
- If your centerpiece is more than 24 inches tall, your table will be placed around the perimeter of the room so it will not inhibit other guests’ views.
- Name tags will be provided, but you may use place cards to match your theme.

CATERING

- You may use any type of dishes, from paper goods to china.
- The meal will be served on clear plastic plates and placed over your plates.
- Dessert will be a prepackaged treat with a beautiful Bible verse sticker embellishment. It will be placed on the table before dinner by the servers.
- Butter and creamer will also be preset, so please leave space for these items.
- PCBC has white dishes, silverware and glassware available upon request. You will receive a form before the event to reserve these items for your table.
- You will need to provide napkins for your table. Paper napkins are fine.
- Each table is 6 feet (72 inches) in diameter and seats 10.
- PCBC has a limited number of white tablecloths. The tablecloths are 104 inches and do not reach the floor. They must be reserved on the attached form.
- The men of PCBC will serve as waiters for the dinner. If you have any servers you might recruit, please let us know.

TABLE SEATS & TICKETS

- Tickets are $35 each. The deadline to purchase tickets is noon Tuesday, Nov. 3.
- You are not responsible for selling the tickets at your table. If you choose not to fill all the seats, we will place individual registrants at your table.
- If you are purchasing the entire table, you will pay for it when you register.
- If you are filling all the seats at your table, please email the names of your guests to ComeToTheTablePCBC@gmail.com.

You will receive a “Request Form for Table Hostesses” via email Oct. 13.

We look forward to working with you to make the evening very special for each person in attendance. If you have any questions or need assistance completing the form, please contact our team at ComeToTheTablePCBC@gmail.com.
